Materials:

Copy or drawing paper

Directions:

1. Fold paper in half so fold is at the bottom. Then fold the top half back down to the bottom. There is now a fold in the middle of the paper so just the A and C are showing.

2. With paper folded, draw an animal so the line of the mouth lines up on the fold in the middle of the paper. Part of the body will be above the fold, and part below the fold.
3. Open up the paper. Extend the mouth from the innermost part of the top lip to the innermost part of the bottom lip. Curve this line a little toward the back of the animal to create a sense of an open mouth. Connect the top of the back of the animal to the bottom of the back.
4. Add some decoration to your animal. Then add something the animal is eating - food, other animals, etc.
5. Go over pencil work with sharpie or black crayon. Color in image with crayons and show your family your open wide surprise!
